SCORING

- Goals will be worth one point.
- The ball must pass completely beyond the goal line, between the goal posts, and under the crossbar.

START OF PLAY

- The game officially starts at the first successful kick, not the referee's whistle.
- A successful kick is when the ball has traveled at least its own circumference into the opponent's end of the field.
- For the second half, the teams change sides and the kick is made by the team that did not kick off in the first half.
- At the signal of the referee, the ball is placed at mid-field and kicked forward.
 - a. Members of the kicking team must stay 10-yards from the ball until the kick off is made.
- After the kickoff, any player except the one who kicked off may play the ball.
 - a. Penalty: Indirect or free kick awarded to the opponent at the spot of the foul.
- After a goal, play is resumed with the team being scored upon kicking off at midfield.

THROW INS

- A throw in is awarded when the whole of the ball passes over the barriers in the air.
- During a throw in, the player must have both feet on or behind the touchline, use both hands, and deliver the ball from behind and over their head.
- The throwing player can not play the ball a second time until it is touched by another player.
- If the throwing player plays the ball before it has been touched by another player, the opposing team will be awarded an indirect kick from at the point of the infraction.
- If the throw in is in any way incorrect, the opposing team will be awarded a throw in.

DROP BALL

- Used when play has been stopped for some reason outside of the rules, when the ball goes over the barrier, when the ball has not gone out of bounds, and when the referee can not determine which team forced the ball out of bounds.
- The ball is dropped where play has stopped and it is in play as soon as the ball touches the ground.
- No one may touch the ball before it hits the ground

FREE KICKS

- Direct free kick:
 - a. A goal may be scored directly by one player.
 - b. The referee should signal by an arm extended towards the opponent's goal.
- Indirect free kick:
 - a. A goal cannot be scored unless the ball is touched by another player other than the kicker.
 - b. The referee should signal by placing their hand and arm overhead.
- For a legal free kick:
 - a. The ball must be in a stationary position.
 - b. The player taking the free kick cannot play the ball again before it has been touched by another player.

PENALTY AREA

- The penalty area is a large rectangle that surrounds the goal area.
- No offensive player is allowed inside the penalty area.
- No defensive player, except the goalie, is allowed inside the penalty area.
- If the offense commits a foul, the defense is awarded a goal kick.
- If the defense commits a foul, the offense is awarded a corner kick.

PENALTY KICKS

- All kicks are made from the area halfway between the front of the penalty area and midfield.
 - a. The only two players involved are the kicker and the goalie.
- The referee signals the kicker to kick towards the goal.
 - a. The ball is in play as soon as it is kicked.
- If the above rules are broken by:
 - a. The defending team:
 - i. The penalty shot must be repeated if a goal was not scored.
 - b. The offensive team (other than the kicker):
 - i. The defensive team is awarded an indirect kick just outside of the penalty area.
- The opposing goalkeeper must stand, without moving his feet, on his own goal posts. They may move only after the ball is struck.
 - a. If they move before hand and the goal is missed, another kick will be awarded to the kicker.
- The goalie may not do anything to distract the kicker.

PROHIBITED ACTS

- A direct free kick will be awarded to the opposing team at the point of infraction:
 - a. Slide tackling
 - b. Kicking
 - c. Tripping
 - d. Jumping on or charging an opponent
 - e. Slugging
 - f. Holding
 - g. Pushing
 - h. Handling the ball with the hands or arms
 - i. The goalkeeper may touch the ball with their hands or arms within the penalty area.
- Indirect free kicks will be awarded to the opposing team at the point of the infraction:
 - a. Playing dangerously
 - b. Shoulder to shoulder blocking off the action
 - c. Obstruction
 - d. Attacking the goalkeeper when they have both hands on the ball
 - e. Unsportsmanlike conduct
- If anyone enters the field to argue a call made by the official the result will be a penalty kick for the opposing team.
 - a. After two offenses, the individual will be asked to leave the playing area and will be suspended for the next two games.
 - b. Accumulation of two unsportsmanlike penalties throughout the season will result in suspension from the program for the remainder of the year.
